RGB-depth fusion at multiple scales

FuseNet-style conceptual encoder: a depth stream injects registered geometry into the appearance stream.

Registered pixels; channel compatibility is required at every + merge.

Depth and RGB features are summed at corresponding scales; the fused appearance stream supplies a dense decoder.